

Erasure, Miracle

It won't be easy it won't be hard
To find the reason to find the rhyme
To get your feet back on the ground
To get your feet back on the ground

We'll be going home
Where the passion
Finds the perfect love
Finds the perfect love

We'll be going home
Where the passion
Covers me with love
Covers me with love

It won't be out there it can't be far
Falls like a teardrop to the star
A wall of silence all around

The miracle of love
Blinds me with your charms
The miracle of love
Take me in your arms
