

Erasure, Mirror To Your Soul

I never say die
All I say is live
Ooh and in the morning there's a brand new star
On its way up to the sky

I never say cry
All I say is smile
Ooh and then the radiators start to boil
Shake and rattle on the wall

Ooh and you know
It's a mirror to your soul
You've had it
And then you notice that you're beautiful
I'm really, really beautiful
Ooh when you have it deep inside your soul

I never say ?
All I say is give
Ooh and in the morning when the cat comes in
Staring back at the night

When the trees come alive
? begin to sing

Then you notice that you're beautiful
I'm really, really beautiful
Ooh then you have it deep inside your soul

Ooh and you know on this day I can do anything
Ooh and you know on this day I'll be free

Ooh and you know on this day I can do anything
Ooh and you know on this day I'll be free

I never say cliff
All I say is climb
Ooh and when you're lying with the morning sun
On its way up to the sky

Ooh and you know
It's a mirror to your soul
You've had it
And then you notice that you're beautiful
I'm really, really beautiful
Ooh then you'll have it deep inside your soul
