

Erasure, Moon And The Sky

All upset that it's gone
Too late to wish your friend farewell
Heard the sea in the shell, said we would meet in other worlds
See how the words you cry
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Got to touch the sky

Hold your head in my hand
I'll take the wish apart inside
Takes the fall of the past
The water leaves a gentle sigh

See how the words you cry

Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Got to touch the sky

All upset that it's gone
Too late to wish your friend farewell
Heard the sea in a shell, said we would meet in other worlds

See (sweet?) how the words you cry
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Got to touch the sky
