

Erasure, Rescue Me

Love is cast ornately in your heart flame
Chakra wheels are turning like a love train

I could pray a hundred times
Keep these demonds from my mind
Yeh I could pray a thousand times
Stay in your lovin' arms entwined

Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Drivin' the pain right through to my heart
Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Ridin' the pain like a fool in the dark

We shall blur the lines of definition
Waves of love our only ammunition

Tear my head out from the sound
Throw myself upon the ground
Take me to the burning tree
It has this strange effect on me

Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Drivin' the pain right through to my heart
Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Ridin' the pain like a fool in the dark

Fascination never tasted sweeter my desire real & soaring freely

You alone can save my soul
You alone are my salvation
You alone can make me whole
Rescue me from condemnation
