

Eric Benet, True To Myself

Everybody wants to rise above
Without a touch of dignity
Without a stroke of love

Take a little time and check yourself
To live the life you're praying for
Just be true to yourself

CHORUS:

I'll be true myself ya'll
I'm true to my family
And love with a true integrity
I'm true to myself ya'll
True to my God above
And love with a true integrity

Everybody wants a piece of you and me
To be victim of their greed
Or co-dependency

It's so very hard to know
Which way to go
A lie can be the gospel truth
If eloquently told

Everybody wants to make amends
If they can see another win
You never really matter in the end to them
That's why

Some people live their whole life
And they'll never see
The only way to find true happiness
Is to thinne own self be

True to yourself ya'll
Got to live your life for you, yeah
All you gotta do, well
Is be true to yourself, well
I'm true to myself, ya'll
I'm true to my little baby girl
I got to be true, oh yeah

CHORUS OUT
