

Eric Carmen, Starting Over

(eric carmen)

Used to feel so f**kin' optimistic
Till she said goodbye
Never thought a love like ours would die

Told myself I'd never love another
All I want is friends
But when we met I felt it all again

Though I am starting over under cloudy skies
I say hello to love
I'm seeing through different eyes
And if I had the chance to make one wish
And know it would come true
I'd start all over with you

Every evening I would watch the sunset
End another day
Let the nighttime wash my blues away

Buried my romantic inclination
Deep inside of me
Till I fell for you immoderately

Though I am starting over under cloudy skies
I say hello to love
I'm seeing through different eyes
And if I had the chance to make one wish
And know it would come true
I'd start all over with you

I remember all the good times
And the bad times spent together
Why remember all the old times
When the new times look much better

Much better

Though I am starting over under cloudy skies
I say hello to love
I'm seeing through different eyes
And if I had the chance to make one wish
And know it would come true
I'd start all over with you

With you
