

Eric Dill, Love Is Warfare

You and me are constantly
Fighting our own war
So let it out, scream and shout
That's what this battle's for
Peace's asleep but fails at last
The restless hearts were meant to blast
Ready or not this is not gonna stop
You can fight it all you want
But it's all we got
Don't say you don't care
Love is warfare
Standing on the edge, sharing for the fall
No one's gonna win and it's nobody's fault
No way forever
Love is warfare
Beamed down; stuck to the ground
We get up when we fall
I'll take the pain, it hurts to change
But silence kills us all
Peace's asleep but fails at last
The restless hearts were meant to blast
Ready or not this is not gonna stop
You can fight it all you want
But it's all that we got
Don't say you don't care
Love is warfare
Standing on the edge, sharing for the fall
No one's gonna win and it's nobody's fault
No way forever
Love is warfare
I'm not gonna let this sadness turn this fire into ashes
I'm not gonna let the difference wash us out and kill our passion
I'm not gonna turn my back on you
(I'm not gonna turn my back on you)
I'm not gonna turn my back on you
Ready or not this is not gonna stop
You can fight it all you want
But it's all we got
Don't say you don't care
Love is warfare
Standing on the edge, sharing for the fall
No one's gonna win and it's nobody's fault
No way forever
Love is warfare
