Eric Heatherly, Just Say You Love Me

When the day comes closer to a end and night comes at night time and the stars at night shine and the wind follows me evertime i go to the places i wanna go no,,no,,no,,no,,and if your on your own and if your alone,

Chorus
Just say you love me let it apper just say you love me i know you will just say you love me let it apper jut say you love me i know you will

And if you need comfort if you need love then baby just let me know, i know that you get the heart to open to me i know you will be mine baby i say you love you say i to i know you love me you said it to me before and now i know,

(now starting at verse at the top)
