

Eric Johnson, I Promise I Will Try

What is it he must do
Why you so unkind
As not to give him all the truth
When you said you won't lie
Why is it you don't dare
When he's awaiting you
Cause what you say is not enough
As what you try to do
So try
So what is it he must do
Why you so unkind
As not to give him all the truth
When you said you won't lie
What you say is not enough
As what you try to do
Oh, what you say is not enough
As what you try to do
You know it's true
Lord I'm just like you
