

Eric Lee, Baby

I love you, I won't ever let you go
I have always dreamed of me and you
Because I love you so
So perfect in every way, it feels like a fantasy
But you're real in every way
No one can take the place of you (for me)

Hook

I love you, you're perfect, a manifestation of my dreams
You make my body feel about a million different things

It's something 'bout the way you make me feel
This feeling that I have, it's real
God, thank you for this wonderful creation
You have given to me
I wanna be the one to get close to you
I wanna get to know you
I'll do the things that make you smile and laugh
Your charm makes me fall for you

Hook

So special, so unique
So many beautiful things I see
Do you feel how I feel?
'Cause, baby, you look so sweet to me
