

Eric Maliet, I'm Alert Ice

Cold as ice
Say i'm cold as ice
Say i've never shed a tear (but i know there's more than that)
Say i'm locked up in my fears (but i know there's more than that) cause i spent so much time denying that i'm flesh and bones

Will you please tell the night i'm almost grown

But all i see and all i find
Gets in my head gets in my mind
I'm never deaf i'm never blind
I'm alert ice

Now i know anger more than sorrow
What they give i have to swallow
What they trust i'll never know
I'm alert ice

I'm alert ice when all the world is burning down in endless races
Please don't leave me here this land's a whore in dirty laces

But i don't stare up at the sky
I hear your words i hate your lies
I never told you i could fly
I'm alert ice

I'm alert ice

Hard as stone
Think i'm hard as stone
Think i'm laughing in your face
Think i've never walked your pace

Now that friends are gone and kids start rolling off their beds
Will you please tell the night i'm good as dead

But all i see and all i find
Gets in my head gets in my mind
I'm never deaf i'm never blind
I'm alert ice

Now i know anger more than sorrow
What they give i have to swallow
What they trust i'll never know
I'm alert ice

I'm alert ice when all the world is burning down in endless races
Please don't leave me here this land's a whore in dirty laces

I'm alert ice

I'm alert ice when all the world is burning down in violent races
Please don't leave me here this land's a whore in dirty laces

But i spent so much time pretending that i'm flesh and bones
Will you please tell the night i'm almost grown
