

Eric Maliet, One Last Lover

Lost and dark the night is shedding tears
Over a star who thought he'd live forever
Briefly bright he'd shine as he appears
Suddenly vanishing among a crowd of strangers

I'm looking for a way to get out of rock'n'roll
Ain't nobody gonna hold my hand
I remember they said everything's under control
As i was looking for the promised land

Oh gimme one last lover
Someone who's never heard of me
One last lover
You know what is should never be

One last lover
Someone who's never heard of me
One last lover
You know what is should never be
