

Eric Maliet, Regrets After Lies (There's Not A Day

When
I see you in dreams
We stand so near
But we never hold
Would you smile
If i told you that
My nights are short
And my days too long

You're in my heart
Stung as a dart
How come that tears me apart

If i believed in fairytales i'd never write a song for you
I'd simply come and take your hand and pray to sink alone with you
Regrets after lies
The words we say are never true it's only
Secrets we disguise
There's not a day when i'm not thinking of you

You
Wipe away the tears
That flood your eyes
You know i need you
I believe
When our chance has gone
There's no way out
And no giving in

Silent and blind
You're in my mind
I guess we're two of a kind

If i believed in fairytales i'd never write a song for you
I'd simply come and take your hand and pray to sink alone with you
Regrets after lies
The words we say are never true it's only
Secrets we disguise
There's not a day when i'm not thinking of you

Maybe one day we'll meet again
When time has healed away the pain
Until that day i'll wait for you
There's not a day when i'm not thinking of you
