

Eric Mantel, Shine On

Suddenly your life meets mine.
And still you ask the question why.
Why are we here and what is this game we play each day.
And all I've ever ever tried to say yeah

Shine on let your love shine on me yeah
Shine on let you light shine on me yeah

I know all the reasons why.
And still you ask the question why,
Why are we here and what is this game we play each day.
And all I've ever ever tried to say yeah

Shine on let your love shine on me yeah
Shine on let your light shine on me yeah
