

Eric Roberson, I Have A Song

How does it feel to finally be free
I wonder will I ever know Sometimes I dream of how that can be To have a life that I own

Chorus:

When you look at me
what do you see
do you understand my story
all I want is love
For someone else to see
If you took the time I have a song

For so, so long I've been searching For something that were probably not meant to find
But no matter how hard it gets no matter if the tears fall Nothing should stop us from trying ohhh?

Chorus:

When you look at me
what do you see
do you understand my story
all I want is love
For someone else to see
If you took the time I have a song
