

Eric Tagg, Turn The Heat Up (Portrait)

uhmmm i feel the chill, since i looked in your eyes the door is wide open to my heart and it's cold inside (2x)

uhmmm i feel the draft blowin' right through my soul something has me frozen in my tracks when i talk to you (3x)

baby can you please warm up to me,
can you set me free?

chorus:
turn the heat up
turn it up inside your heart
turn the flame up
turn it up inside your heart
turn the heat up
in your heart
(turn the heat up turn it up inside your heart)

baby have you been burned by somebody before?
is that why you've been acting so cruel when you're close to me (2x)

i guess i'll have to try, and make my move inspite of you

repeat chorus:

baby can you please warm up to me
you can set me free

3rd chorus:
turn the heat up, baby just warm up to me turn the flame up, and the fire will set you free
