

Eric Woolfson, Wings Of Eagles

You look through a window and you
You see the rain falling outside
But how do you know what I see
Through my eyes?
(My eyes)
Something extraordinary,
Out of the ordinary,
So come take a look at the world
Through my eyes...

Wings of eagles,
Voices like thunder,
Lifting me up to drink from the cup
And fill me with wonder...

You look in the mirror and you
You see a reflection inside
Well how would you know what I see
In my mind?
(My mind)
Look for an inspiration,
Use your imagination,
I'll take you to places I've been
In my mind...

Look at the sky...
Is there a heaven out there?
What do you see?
Is it a road to nowhere?
I see a mountain high
That reaches to the sky forever
Out of the blue--
All the bells in heaven ring in my ears...

Wings of eagles,
Voices like thunder,
Lifting me up to drink from the cup
And fill me with wonder...

Wings of eagles,
Voices like thunder,
Lifting me higher, flame to the fire
Dragging me under...

You look in the fire and you
See the flames dance before you;
Oh what a picture they paint
In my eyes...
(My eyes)
Shadows will mystify you,
Silence will hypnotize you,
Taking a look at the world
Through my eyes...

Look at the stars--
Must be a heaven somewhere,
What can you see?
Who do you think is out there?
I hear a symphony
Arising in the air forever
Out of the blue--
All the choirs in heaven are singing for me...
For me...

Wings of eagles,
Voices like thunder,
Lifting me up to drink from the cup
And fill me with wonder...

Wings of eagles,
Voices like thunder,
Lifting me higher, flame to the fire
Dragging me under...

Under...
