

Erik Hassle, Bump In The Road

We all must go through it sometime
Youre not the first, you know
You stick your head in the sunshine
Dont expect the worst, though
If a bird can sing with a broken wing
Youll learn to bend when the wind blows
The leaves may fall, but the trees stand tall
This is a bump in the road
Dont give up, you will make it
Dont give up, you will make it
We all must go through it sometime,
Youre not the first , you know
Love got more hooks than a fish line
Belive it hurts, ahah
If the a bird can sing with a broken wing
Youll learn to bend when the wind blows
The leaves may fall, but the trees stand tall
This is a bump in the road
Dont give up, you will make it
Dont give up, you will make it
Out of the dark
Into the light
Over the edge
Over your life
We all must go through it sometime
Your not the first
You stick your head in the sunshine
Dont expect the worst
If a bird can sing with a broken wing
Youll learn to bend when the wind blows
The leaves may fall, but the trees stand tall
This is a bump in the road
Dont give up, you will make it
Dont give up, you will make it
