

Erik Segerstedt, Too happy too soon

He died on a Friday by Saturday night she was out on a club drinking all through the night and she was too happy too soon In the casino he didn't think twice by gambling it all on a roll of a dice and he was too happy too soon

-CHORUS-

Well you just never know how it's gonna go
Well you just never know
how it's gonna go
It was teenage fun with the parents away, now the baby is do in the middle of may and they were too happy too soon Prometed at work, bought a boat and a trunk till the very next day the whole company sunk and you were too happy too soon

-CHORUS-

Oooh, well you just never know
how it's gonna go
Well you just never know
how it's gonna go
Well you just never know
how it's gonna gooo
Up on the table and under the knife
I wonder is this gonna be my life Should I've been too happy too soon?

when your gonna go
Well you just never know
when your gonna go
Well you just never know
haaaaaaaaaaaaaah Sooner or later we'll figure it out,
