

Ernest Tubb, Before I'm Over You

I just can't get it through my head you love another now instead
Can't make myself believe we're really through
I'm walking up and down the hall talking to a silent wall
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you
I think I've almost lost my mind I think about you all the time
I'm going crazy yes I know and I don't have far to go
The way you treat me is a shame but I'll keep loving you the same
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you
[steel - guitar]
I keep your letters I should burn I keep the ring that you returned
But there's a million foolish things I do
It makes me cry but you would laugh to know I kiss your photograph
I'll lose my mind before I'm over you
Well I think I've almost lost my mind...
