

Ernest Tubb, Don't Back A Man Up In A Corner

She never was much satisfied with me she's been a lot of time rebuilding me
A hundred times I tried to warn her don't back a man up in a corner
Cause you can only push a man so far the ties of love will only stretch so far
Then day will break and he's a goner don't back a man up in a corner
Cause he'll come out swinging every time if you'll walk up and down on his pride
If you'll break down the door and he can't hide no more
You just might find the tiger inside
It feels so good to feel the open air it felt so good to leave her standing there
A hundred times I tried to warn her don't back a man up in a corner
[steel]
Cause he'll come out swinging every time...
Don't back a man up in a corner
