

Ernest Tubb, I'd Like To Live It Again

I'd like to turn back the pages of time I'd like to live it again
The good times the bad times in this life of mine I'd like to live it again
Oh the singing the dancing the wining romancing yes even the heartbreak and sin
The times when I've laughed and the times when I've cried I'd like to live it again [guitar - steel]
There are things in my life I know I should change I'd like to live it again
But I really wonder would I change a thing I'd like to live it again
Oh the singing the dancing...
Yes I'd like to live it again
