

Ernest Tubb, Jealous Loving Heart

Don't ever kiss no one but me if you do dear you'll break my heart
It's not because I doubt you but I'm such a fool about you
I've got a jealous loving heart

Cause where there's love there's jealousy good and bad just won't tear apart
They always go together like fair and stormy weather I've got a jealous loving heart [guitar]
You're all I want you're all I love please don't tear my soul apart
Just say you love me too dear and be careful what you do dear
I've got a jealous loving heart
Don't ever kiss no one but me...
