

Ernest Tubb, Journey's End

Each night brings back my dreams of you I cry and cry I feel so blue
You broke my heart so why I pretend the sign ahead reads journey's end
River's rolling along skies are turning gray clouds are moving in I've lost my way
I tried to smile but why I pretend the sign ahead reads journey's end [guitar]
Sitting all alone beneath the stars I'm wondering where on earth you are Thinking of the things that might have been but the sign ahead reads journey's end
River's rolling along...
