

Ernest Tubb, No Matter What Happens My Darlin

Now the fate takes us both to the crossroads it seems that we two have to part
No matter what happens my darling you'll always be close to my heart
If troubles and cares overtake you whatever your sorrows may be
No matter what happens my darling I want you to please call on me
[ steel ]
I'll always be ready to guide you if destiny leads you astray
No matter what happens my darling my heart's with you each night and day
So remember that you're always with me in mem'ry you'll be by my side
No matter what happens my darling you'll still be my true love and bride
