

Ernest Tubb, Tell Her So

If you have a love that's true one who never makes you blue
Let your things and love show through tell her so tell her so
Give her a kiss once in a while a tender touch a loving smile
If you're happy let her know tell her so tell her so

[steel]

Never let her heart grow cold she means more to you than gold
If you're proud she's yours to hold tell her so tell her so
So give her a kiss...
