

Ernie Halter, Love Look At Me Now

I spent nights waiting for you
Staring out the window by my bed
These street lights
So unkind to shine upon the emptiness instead

I hang my head
Im down but im not giving up on you just yet
Love, look at me now
What is this feeling people talk about
Love, look at me now
You don't know how long I've been holding out
For you love, look at me now

Some people take you for granted
Softly as you crept into their hearts
Not me though
Just don't leave me stranded
Here with no one in my arms

I'll do my part
I'll stand out in the rain
I'll cry out in the dark

Love, look at me now
What is this feeling people talk about

Love, look at me now
You don't know how long i've been holding out for you love

I make your every wish
My command
If you were drowning
I would bring you back
Back to land

Where do I begin
I'm ready to jump in

Love, look at me now
I've heard so many perfect things about you
Love, look at me now
Maybe your just a shadow of a doubt
Love, where have you been
I wanna fall in
I'm never coming out
For you love, look at me now
Look at me now

I spent nights
Waiting for you
Staring out the window by my bed
