

Error, Burn In Hell

Burn in hell! (x2)

Hey man, you live in wonderland
You say to distrust the fuss then bust a radical style
You've got two hands for grabbing all you can
I said
Hey man, for everyone you slam
And every time you pander to a Sam you can't scam
I said
Claws out, a woman lays dead
Out goes all choice
Begin and get it in

Hey man, for life like that
For turning what was good into shit
For any one of your favorite sins
Welcome to hell, welcome to hell

Count ten,
You're such an angry man
You're running too hot like cops who trot Afghanistan's sand
I said
No man has acted more grand
I said
Hey man you're always envying
For every Toke and joke you broke while lazing in bed
And then claws out, a woman lays dead
Out goes all choice
Begin and get it in x4

Hey man, for life like that
For turning what was good into shit
For any one of your favorite sins
Welcome to hell, welcome to hell!
