

Esham, Redemption

Oh my god you came into my life
And turned my world around
I was lost i couldnt see my sight
So i couldnt find my home
So you know Ive smoked some weed
And took some pills and even sniffed some blow
And so i repent
Cus all the blessings ive recieved i know that heavens sent
I never knew when i spit this shit
That every rapper in the world be on some wicked shit
Its like the first time i hit this shit
Say you get the shit but wont admit the shit
You saw me shine the sun lit this shit
On my knees at night askin should i quit this shit
When i first started we were total opposites
I took a stand so you can see all the hypocrites
Salvation for all of my sins through Jesus sacrifice
We live in wicked nation
Im sayin amen cus i dont wanna die

chorus

Its all about redemption
Everything i did and what i said
Its all about redemption
If we can forgive we can forget
Its all about redemption
It was him the devil in disguise
With a gun standin right before my eyes
He wanted my life
The wicked shit i speak was never meant for the weak
I'm runnin out of time
Goin out of my mind dodgin demons in the streets
God please give me a sign
Inherit the earth only the children of the meek
So if you realy wanna see my soul in hell
This spittin wicked shit i told the golden tale
My concious catchin heat its gettin old and stale
Its hard to embrace when i hold this hell
If you walk the bloody trail then bring your holy grail
The devil went after my soul but god closed the cell
Even though the wicked shit knows me well
You wont find me on the wagon when it goes to hell
Believe me hell is lonely
Believe me i was there my soul was spared
And dont nobody know me
And only he cares thats why im there
Its raining diamonds

chorus
