

Eskobar, She's Not Here

It's no good for us to carry on did what I could for us but I did wrong

it was so strange when it happened and I did not...

she's not here no more
I don't really care no more demanding my tears no more
how should I act now?

She's not here no more
blurring the clear no more
I just can't see fear no more
how should I act now?

It's no good for us to carry on what I could for us I did wrong looking good but still not carry on

It was so strange when it happened
and I did not feel a thing

She's not here no more
I don't really care no more
Demanding my tears no more
How should I act now?

She's not here no more
blurring the clear no more
I just can't see fear no more
Broken the pact now

She's not here no more
I don't really care no more
I just can't see fear no more
How should I act now?
Broken the pact now
How should I act now..
