

Esme, The Dreams Are Real

i can't sleep i can't breathe take me with you, if you were here you'd make this all worth while, i can't sleep i can't breathe we remember in our hearts every time you made us smile. this dream i had i died inside, you left us all and the tears fell hard, i see you everywhere i want you here you brought to light what we all now fear it hurts so much but i cannot wake, these closed soaked eyes see only you, i've got to wake up and get out of this nightmare so ask me if i'm ok, is everything alright is every ok, just let me know when everything's right, just let me know when everything's good, just let me know i can't sleep i can't breathe when i awake you'll be standing there
