

Eso-Charis, Once Upon A Fashionable

Reflection of an almost, almost what you want
Blending in is what's different
Jesus loves your heart
It doesn't matter what you wear or what you like
You forgot to remember
Who decides the fashion law?
Who holds the standards on who we should be?
Who's right or wrong?
We're all welcome here
Christ is the answer
You're wasting your time
Keep focused on not what is seen but what is unseen, it is eternal
Fashion statement
Who will be the judge?
You've lost your found self
Follow Him
