Eso-Charis, Processed Bodies

What I crave, set forth I'll pray I've been saved and raising God's standards, recieve Testing faith cast up my legs Stand up and praise You must be strong There is no compromise Decisions made don't come from circumstance We better fight back for Jesus Relentless Dead flame you don't have to change yourself He changes you Unite in Christ To give up your selfish ways To give up your prideful ways To give up these worldly ways Be only what you'vebecome, do only what you've sunken Bodies processed Time has come to stop telling man who mn thinks he is And tell them who he realy is, Jesus Stand in, ignite, you're salt, he's light I hate satan and all his lies It's more than just life