

Eso-Charis, Spirit Of Revival

Ressurection fall on us, ressurection roll over us
This is our reality to pursue your hand
Righteousnes, you arm us with your strength
We come trembling from our strongholds
Understand, discern the spirits
This is our quest to take over enemies, taken back what's already ours
Our conquest
Holy spirit, take this land and God please crush all hate, overtake our hearts
Lord, let your love pour down harder
So let your love pour down harder
Let the rivers run wider
Let the winds carry further
Let the fire burn brighter
Spirit of revival
