

Eso-Charis, The Narrowing List

The time is now
Salvation, time to surface and be rooted in your love, oh God
Die to ourselves, understanding what you did
You're worthy of praise
More of you and less of me
For you are my everything
I'm unworthy, you're merciful, it's a free gift
And we wait for you to return and take us home
Down by choice, Satan's list is getting narrow
It's time to step out
Heirs of a promise stake your claim
And this is our place in this world, to love you
For you are our God and we praise you, praise you God
(Shield us, Protect) you are my savior, God
"With our voices we lift up our thanks
Please inhabit our praise, Jesus, you are worthy"
Repent from ourselves and spread the good news of your glory
Step by step by step we'll overcome this lost world
(Father God) it's open season on the lost
(Isaiah 53: 1-5) Jesus, nothing compares
Your kingdom come, let it be done, here on earth as it is in heaven
Praise you God, praise you Jesus
Will I stop? Will I back down? Never
I will never stop
