

Esthero, If Tha Mood -

I know i said it was over but if you ever want to come over I think i got what it takes to make ya feel nice because you gave yourself to another but id suppose you hadnt forgotten what our love tastes like shee wonnt fuuck youuu like i do and you know that its true coooz I Coz I have what she hasnt got and I remember all your spots soo

If tha mood should hit ya and you wanna
baby i dont mind
A little taste may
re-lieve the tension
I feel inside

IM in the mood

Could it be my cozy web this unbelievably delicious spread oh dont say no thats not how this should go Ive thoughta bt you often this feeling hasnt gone rotten lets take a spin around this old deck again she wont fk you like I did shes not into that wild shit and I have what she hasnt got

Oh to know what things to do to keep me wanting you also all the things to say that keep me coming your way due to the beauty preferred its hard for me to be true to my girll Cant be trust with you in my world Im glued to the kush, you heard No gas in my tank's empty im stuck in your town the plan's to gently buckle you down and fk me now i want to fk me now only the truth is with me now im feeling the screw, you swift nah i dont mean rude wit the lips b im guessin the mood just hit me

oh, im in the mood
