

Eternal Decision, First Sin

Feeling low, drowning in this pain
Reaping what I've sown
And I feel I'm dying
Should of known not to dive right in
Tried to look away but now I am crying

And I lost myself in a love that kills
And now I can't feel
And now I know, this hell
It's time to turn away, from this sin I hate

Feel alone, in this pit I've made
Scratch to climb the walls but there's no use trying
You didn't know, couldn't look you in the eye,
Feeling like a snake when I know I'm lying

I've lost my way from You now, I've fallen again.
I'll find my way to You now
I'm reaching again

After all the Love You've shown me
Why do I still put other things before You
Things that can never fill this void inside
Because the only time I've ever truly felt whole Lord
Is when I'm with you
So I'm.. I'm reaching for You

Feeling low, Should have known
Not to dive right in Reaping man's 1st Sin
