

Eternal Decision, No Grip

Invading through my eyes
Attacking heart and mind
So pervasive, your mission
So persuasive, feeding addiction
So perverted, and I see through you
You can have no grip on me

Defending, shield my eyes
Protect my heart and mind
I don't need you, you blind me
So forget you, put you behind me
Moving on now
Cause I see through you
