

Eternal Decision, The Time Has Come

Do you settle for nothing
Or do you want it all
Locked down inside your heart now
Do you hear the call

And now the time
For you to take a look inside your heart
And all you've ever wanted
Is sitting, waiting right in front of you

Can you be the victor
Will you count the cost
Pressing onwards towards the high call
Taking back what's lost
