

Eternal Gray, World Of Ice

World full of lies, people turned to ice
We trust our faith to desecrate all existence
Of our lives
Drawn into the down, into eternity that is now gone
No more will, yes, no regrets, of what we are
And what we've done.

It's hard to reveal the secret of the sanity
That fades away
It's hard to decide now whom we will kill
And who will stay.

Now when it's too late, to change our minds
And take things back
The world we built the world we shaped
Turned its back- manipulate.
You - fools of god, we're full of hate
You - beg your lives, but no more mercy
I'll show you the gate - to hell

It's hard to reveal the secret of the sanity
That fades away
It's hard to decide now whom we will kill
And who will stay.

I cross my heart and realize it has gone,
We turned to soldiers in a war we haven't done ...again
I seek the truth beyond the wall - it's non exist,
We have the power to change - we drawn into the mist.

World full of lies, people turned to ice
We trust our faith to desecrate all existence
Of our lives
Drawn into the down, into eternity that is now gone
No more will, yes, no regrets, of what we are
And what we've done.
