

Eternal Reign, Set The Sails

Ooh, Mother - I'm gonna leave and I won't return... I won't return
Ooh, Father - leave you behind in search for the course... to search what I learned

(Chorus:)

We set the sails leave for a distant shore...

Set the sails ooh yeah

We set the sails leave for a distant shore...

Gotta find direction

Gotta do just what I have to do

We set the sails leave for a distant shore... oh... oh...

Ooh, Mother - dry all your tears - I will return... I will return

Ooh, Father - to loose means to win, to search means to find a place so unkind

(Chorus:)

(Solo)

Ooh, Mother - we'll meet again on that different shore... on that distant shore

Ooh, Mother - to loose means to win... that's what I know, where should I go?

(Chorus till the end)
