

Ethereal Scourge, Death of Hades

Master - victory is yours
All power and strength
Who is he
That may behold your face and live?
The gates of Sheol are smashed

The fall of Dagon
By the ark
The false are crushed by your hand
None will stand against your blade
It drips blood and fire
Death with power

Your coming rides near
Black hearts rot with fear
The swords of the Host
Dark angels impale

It is appointed
Once for us to die
Yet twice shall we live
Christ's power and strength

Master O' Master
By your spirit we prevail
Death you have conquered
