

Ethereal Scourge, Through the Waters to dwell in the light of the ancient of days in bliss to see the glory of his awesome face

drink the benediction divine endless grace emmanuel enthroned
by his side take your place glide the mirror sea of placid aeons old flawless morning swan your graceful wings unfold lift your voice in song to the lover of your soul the source of all harmony his beauty unspoiled bear your cross make your way lie submerged healing pool all is past washed away strong in heart now arise
