

Eudora, Breakfast Of A Killer

A wrinkle in time
Could set the whole world
On the Axis of Bermuda.
When forgetting is so easy,
And I know you hate it so much.
I would take care of your precious malachite and amethyst
So take your mercury (and drink it).
For all that I'm drowning is plagued
By the child of a wolf,
But we all drowned like dogs.
Falling asleep in the daylight with kids in the backseat ...
It's a harmless nap on the road.
A wrinkle in time,
A parallel science,
Flaunting brave hearts when life seems so cheap.
Knowing that some day we all stop living the life's we live now
I shouldn't think like this right now
Dropping lines as you're falling asleep.
So take your problems.
For all that I'm drowning is plagued
By the child of a wolf,
We all drown like dogs.
Falling asleep in the daylight with kids in the backseat
Of the tour bus.
Cause we all laugh like Charles.
In this wrinkle in time,
You fucked up the storyline.
We are the killers.
We are the killers.
We are the killers.
We are the killers.
For all that I'm drowning is plagued
By the child of a wolf,
But we all drowned like dogs.
Falling asleep in the daylight with kids in the backseat ...
It's a harmless nap on the road
