

Eureka Birds, Dinosaurs

Back from fossil fuels they are
So big destructive
To me and you they are
So big destructive

These reptiles belong locked in a cage
These cold-blooded minds
Locked in a cage
Why can't anybody see?
Why can't anybody see what they do?

There are dinosaurs in the kitchen
Lord! What are they mixin now?
They're with teeth and talon
Oh! Down down down

Dressed in suits and ties they are
So big destructive
All scaly skin and lies,
Oh dear, no no no

My fair-weather friend
I've got to go
I'm feeling the end's upon us
Why can't anyone see?
Why can't anyone see what they do?
