

Euroboys, Sleep 'Til Tomorrow

Theres a place i always go, feeling down
Got a problem that cant be solved
Down the darkest solid road, turn around
And feel your hair begin to blow

(Refrain)

Let me sleep til tomorrow
So my body can take a breath
Let me sleep through the darkest hours
Then my soul can take a rest

In the dim and dusty light,
Im waking up
Were soon in the classroom
Back in school
Tried so hard to make it right,
Cracking up
And told myself Im such a fool

(Refrain)

Let me sleep till tomorrow
So my body can take a breath
Let me sleep through the darkest hours
Then my soul can take a rest

(Refrain 2)

Let me sleep till tomorrow
Til the rest of the day
Let me sleep through the darkest hours
Til the demons have gone away
