

Eurythmics, King Of The Hypocrites

You told me you are a Christian
You told me you are pure
You told me you would sacrifice every thing for sure!
King of the hypocrites
King of the hypocrites
With a crown of lies
Look me in the eyes
You told me you were picked upon
By all the kids at school
You told me you were lonely
And I thought you were so cool
King the hypocrites
King of the hypocrites
With a crown of lies
King of the hypocrites

You can't look look me in the eyes
It was seven years ago
It took you seven years to see
It took me seven years to believe
That I was the one you need
King of the hypocrites
With a crown of lies
King of the hypocrites
Come on, look me in the eyes
You told me you were a Christian
You told me you were pure
But I think you re so sick inside
You're never gonna find a cure
