

Eva Cassidy, Anniversary Song

Today has been a special day an anniversary, a request that you play your piano as the evening sun slowly sets

I never thought I'd get this old dear
and the lord's been like my shadow even when I was wrong
no I never thought it would turn out this way the birthday with apologies for all the tears and regrets and I've always saved your poetry for these years when you forget

even when I was wrong

so sing with me softly as the day turns to night and later I'll dream of paradise with you I love you and goodnight
