

Eva Cassidy, Baby I Care

well you can give me all your love, and anything else you got to but dont play in my mind like if it seems like im acting kool well you can press me in the mirror get me kisses forever in a day yeah but theres just one thing u dont have to say cause you dont have to say you love me and you dont have to say any prayers no you dont have to say you love me baby its alright

cause hunnie i dont care oh baby i dont care ohh hunnie i dont caree ohh hunnie i dont care!!

well you can turn the lights down low some things are better that way yeah and you can tell me all your storys but please spare me the phase

and you dont have to save any tears
baby its alright

cause hunnie i dont care ohh baby i dont care
