

Eva Dahlgren, Damn You, I'm Falling

Damn you I'm falling I've been playing too long and my heart's got me wrong and I'm stuck between two border-lines

Damn you I'm falling thought we had the same rules but that lousy trick you used really got me

Damn you I'm falling thought I stood on steady ground but I'm sort of flying around and it scares me so

Give it all up for you Give it all up when time just stunned my memories Give it all up noway Give it all up I've had too many setbacks heard too many lies too trust you

Damn you I'm falling inside me there's a war but everything you call me I know you've won it

Damn you I'm falling feel naked so take what you need but darling please leave me unaffected
